The City of Fremont Olive Hyde Art Gallery 's 38th Annual Textile Exhibit, running April 14 – May 20, 2006, is looking for artists to submit entries.

Miss Olive Hyde was a woman of many talents, from Textile Artist to Musician, Historian, Conservationist and Patron of the Arts. The Annual Textile Art Exhibit is held each year to honor the contribution Miss Olive Hyde has made to the City's cultural life. Now in it's 36th year, this special collection of primarily Bay Area Artists sheds light on the various mediums and approaches that artists can consider within the realm of Textile Arts. Last year's show broadened the scope of how we think about the term "fiber based art" with a mix of beautiful traditional Quilting and Basket Weaving to innovative approaches to Contemporary Sculpture and Mixed Media. This is a Juried exhibition, which has a longstanding following and exposure within the Bay Area arts community.
